

S. M. WILSON ADDS COREY NODER

S. M. Wilson & Co. has added Corey Noder, Stacey Ross, Lee Wallace and Amy de Kramer to its professional staff.

Noder joined the company as Project Manager. He has 14 years of experience overseeing construction project elements including workforce, materials and budget management, and client and subcontractor communications. Noder holds a Bachelor of Science in Construction Management from Southern Illinois University – Edwardsville.

Ross is S. M. Wilson's new Project Assistant/Job Accountant. She has 20 years of experience and will be working on the Shriners Hospitals for Children St. Louis project.

Wallace will serve as Site Safety & Health Officer for the new elementary school project at Ft. Knox, Kentucky. He has more than 20 years of hazardous materials management and training, and holds a Bachelor of Science in Occupational Health and Safety from Columbia Southern University.

Amy de Kramer will serve as Project Coordinator on the company's Ft. Knox elementary school project in Kentucky. She will handle a variety of administrative support responsibilities for the project. Amy holds a Bachelor of Science degree from Old Dominion University and has 11 years of construction project administration experience.

S.M. Wilson is a full-service construction management, design/build and general contracting firm with headquarters in St. Louis and Rollins Construction Company, LLC, a wholly-owned subsidiary of S. M. Wilson, in Indianapolis. S. M. Wilson is one of the largest general construction and construction management firms in the St. Louis area. The company posted $250 million in 2013 revenues, and ranks 232nd in Engineering News-Record's 2013 list of Top 400 commercial contractors nationwide. For more information, visit www.smwilson.com.