

S. M. WILSON PRESIDENT AMY BERG JOINS THE FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF ST. LOUIS' INDUSTRY COUNCIL AND WYMAN CENTER BOARD OF TRUSTEES

St. Louis, Mo., October 23, 2018 – S. M. Wilson & Co., President, Amy Berg, has been named to the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis' Industry Council and the Wyman Center Board of Trustees.

As President and member of S. M. Wilson's Executive Committee and Executive Planning Committee, Berg guides and manages the company and assists in determining the future direction of S. M. Wilson. During her 22 year tenure with the firm, Berg has been instrumental in the development of new business, client retention and establishing public relations and marketing strategies.

Berg recently joined the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis' Industry Council which is designed to provide important feedback regarding economic conditions within a key Eighth District industry sector. She will serve on the real estate council, providing insight on the economic conditions affecting the construction and real estate industry.

In addition, Berg was elected to the Board of Trustees of Wyman Center, an organization dedicated to empowering teens from economically disadvantaged circumstances to lead successful lives and build strong communities. Her term will begin in January 2019. As a member of the board, she will serve a three-year term to help the organization achieve strategic goals and initiatives, oversee policies, monitor performance and ensure long-range planning meets the needs of future generations.

Berg is also active in the business community as a board member of the Missouri Growth Association, as well as sitting on the board of Habitat for Humanity and Richard A. Chaifetz School of Business Advisory Board at Saint Louis University.
