

S. M. WILSON PROMOTES STEVE MITCHLER

S. M. Wilson & Co. has promoted Steve Mitchler to Project Director and Jason Gasawski and Tim Doran to Assistant Project Manager. Mitchler been Senior Project Manager at the company for the past 15 years, and has overseen construction projects for Anheuser-Busch and Procter & Gamble, and now is leading the team responsible for constructing the future IKEA St. Louis store. Steve has more than 30 years of construction experience, and holds a B.S. Civil Engineering, University of Missouri – Rolla.

Gasawski has been Project Engineer at S. M. Wilson for the past five years, working on projects for Metal Container Corporation and Ladue Schools. Jason will be serving as Assistant Project Manager on the CityWalk project. He has nine years of experience in the construction industry, and earned a B. A. at Southern Illinois University – Edwardsville.

Doran has served as Project Engineer for the past three years at S. M. Wilson, and has worked on a variety of projects around the country including Von Maur and JCPenney. He has nine years of experience in the industry, and earned a B. S. in Advanced Technical Studies at Southern Illinois University – Carbondale.

S.M. Wilson is a full-service construction management, design/build and general contracting firm with headquarters in St. Louis and Rollins Construction Company, LLC, a wholly-owned subsidiary of S. M. Wilson, in Indianapolis. S. M. Wilson is one of the largest general construction and construction management firms in the St. Louis area. The company posted $250 million in 2013 revenues, and ranks 232nd in Engineering News-Record's 2013 list of Top 400 commercial contractors nationwide. For more information, visit www.smwilson.com.